VOLUME 6 ISSUE 3 NOVEMBER 11, 2014

October meeting.

The scheduled meeting for October, tool handling, was postponed until January. Instead the meeting featured a presentation by Mr. Dave Dudney. He is a member of the Pittsburgh club, Turners Anonymous.

Dave is the regional contact with the AAW for the symposium that will be held next June in Pittsburgh. The Symposium will take place at the David L. Lawrence Convention Center in Pittsburgh, PA from June 25th through the 28th. Dave's primary focus was on calling for volunteers to do various tasks during the convention. These volunteer positions may be held by either symposium registrants or non-registrants.

As I understood the volunteer situation from Dave's discussion, was that there are some events for which the volunteer must be a registered participant and others that the volunteer does not need to be registered to participate.

Two of our members are key players in next year's symposium. Daryl Gray, and Bob Wilson. They will be heading up different areas of participation and volunteer work. You can talk with either one of them if you need more information.

To find out more about the symposium itself, go to www.woodturner.org and select the Events, Calls, and Grants tab then select the International Symposium tab, then select the 2015 Pittsburgh tab.

November meeting.

This month's demo will be conducted by Beth Ireland. Beth is a professional woodturner and is the Artist-In-Residence in the IUP Center for Woodturning and Furniture Design. To learn more about Beth the person as well as the artist, her work and other interests can be found at www.bethireland.net. Log on to her site, there is some great stuff there.

Daryl has sent emails to other local turning clubs inviting them to participate in the meeting. It should be a great evening.

I will be sending the instructions for the Chips challenge for this month, actually it was for last month but we didn't get around to having it at the last meeting.
