

ICWA Meeting for April 11th 2023

. BS and show and tell time from 6 to 7 pm. Many nice platters and other pieces for show on display.

. We had 19 in attendance and that was counting one new person interested in wood turning, Imran Bajwa.

. Cookies were supplied by Dave Fairman. Thank you Dave.

. Business meeting started at 7:00 with Dave Fairman presiding.

.Old Business:

.Dave extended thanks to Daryl for her involvement with Mercy Ships. She is currently in Africa and has been sharing some of her trip with us on Facebook.

. Dave thanked Jonathan for his work on the monthly newsletter.

. The second hands on meeting the 8th of March went well with another great session.

New Business

.Dave shared that he will not have any further time conflicts between the club meetings and his work schedule.

. May's demonstration will be part 2 of Jonathan's technique for finishing a twice turned bowl.

. May cookies will be brought by Jonathan.

.Summer meetings were discussed with Dave to check with BA regarding the continued use of the facility through the summer.

.The next hands on meeting will be this Saturday the 15th at Sprowls hall.

. Bill Malea gave a financial report which is basically the same as February with $1,245 and change in the bank.

.Chips contest for May is wide open. Just make something and bring it to the meeting.

. Chips this month was a large platter and the winners were: Turners Denny Overdorf and the Learners was Bob Piccirillo.

.The make it take it was a small box with a spin top as a lid made by Dave Fairman and won by Pat Fleckenstein

. Jonathan Silwones gave a very informative and detailed demo on rough turning a twice turned bowl.

Next months meeting will be on the 9th of May at 6:30.
